Renegades stay in first with strong outings at Jersey Shore

By Rich Thomaselli

A five-run outburst in the top of the 10th inning led the Hudson Valley Renegades to an 8-4 victory over the Jersey Shore BlueClaws on Friday night at ShoreTown Ballpark.

The two teams split the first four games of this critical South Atlantic League North Division series.

Then the Renegades won the final two games on Saturday and Sunday. Another strong start by Chase Hampton and early offense helped the Renegades post a dominant 4-0 win over the Jersey Shore BlueClaws on Saturday night.

On Sunday, another historic performance by Drew Thorpe guided the Renegades to a 1-0 win over the BlueClaws. Following an amazing start last Sunday against the Aberdeen IronBirds, Thorpe turned in another one of the best starts that the Renegades have ever gotten. Across 7.0 shutout innings, the right-hander struck out 12, the most by a Hudson Valley pitcher in a single game since 2005 when online game-by-game records are available. In his last two starts, Thorpe (5-1) has thrown 15.0 shutout innings while allowing just six hits, two walks and striking out 19 batters.

The BlueClaws took the lead in the bottom of the first of the game on Friday as they jumped on Juan Carela two batters into the frame. After Nick Ward was hit by a pitch, Marcus Lee Sang drove him in with a triple to left-center. Two batters later, Andrick Nava lifted a sacrifice fly to center to score Lee Sang and give Jersey Shore a 2-0 lead.

In the bottom of the third, the BlueClaws tacked on another with a two-out rally off Carela comprised of a Rixon Wingrove single and a Nava double off the wall in right to extend the advantage to 3-0. Carela settled down after that, and did not allow another run across his 5.2 innings of work. The right-hander walked only one and struck out 10, marking the second consecutive start that he reached double digits in strikeouts.

Hudson Valley broke through against Gunner Mayer in the top of the fourth. Anthony Garcia singled and advanced to third on a Grant Richardson double with one out. Eduardo Torrealba lined a 1-0 pitch into left for a single to plate Garcia and cut the deficit to 3-1. The Renegades tied the game in the top of the sixth, as Grant Richardson tripled to score Spencer Henson and came home on a Torrealba sacrifice fly off Jason Ruffcorn to even the score at 3-3.

The game stayed tied until the top of the 10th, when the Renegades erupted for five runs off Matt Russell and Tristan Garnett. Ben Cowles drove in automatic runner Kyle Battle with a single to right field to put the Renegades in front 4-3. Rafael Flores followed with a single, and after the runners advanced to second and third on a groundout, Henson was intentionally walked to load the bases for Richardson. He hit a ground ball to first that he beat out for an infield single to score Cowles. Garnett then threw the live ball out of play thinking

Groundbreaking held on renovations for firehouse

By Kristine Coulter

What was called "a symbolic groundbreaking" on the "Project" took place on June 5 with Mayor Lee Kyriacou, Fire Chief Tom Lucchesi, City Council members and former Fire Chief Gary Van Voorhis taking part. "The Project," which is the renovation and addition to the City's Lewis Tompkins Hose Fire Station, has been 17 years in the making, according to City leaders.

Mayor Kyriacou remarked, "After nearly two decades of studies, the City is moving forward to complete the ongoing consolidation of our fire services into one facility that meets modern fire service standards."

The cost of the renovation and addition, according to a press release from the Mayor's Office, is $14 million. Almost two decades have been on planning students and architectural design, according to the release.

"After more than seventeen years, the Firehouse Project is finally getting underway. Both the Career and Volunteer members of the Beacon Fire Department are very excited and looking forward to working in a new 16,400 square foot state of the art facility," said Fire Chief Lucchesi.

"The City's Fire Department has undergone a significant shift over these years from a largely volunteer Department to a mostly career Department that is augmented by volunteers. This new facility recognizes that transition and will hope-

"Poets Martine Bellen, Indran Amirthanayagam, and Patricia Spears Jones will read their work and engage in conversation about the place of poetry in today's literary landscape," stated a press release. "Two playwrights, Charlotte Meehan and Nigel Gearing will launch the afternoon, demonstrating two unique ways of creating plays. They will be followed by Laura Sims in conversation with actor and director Emily Mortimer."

Danielle Trussoni joined by Will Shortz, puzzle editor of The New York Times, will be on the last panel of the day. The two will discuss the ways they collaborated on her latest novel, "The Puzzlemaster," states the release. Organizers note that attendees will receive the first edition signed copies of Trussoni's novel with the purchase of any other book. A free lunch will be available and is courtesy of sponsor Healthy In Color.

"Howland Cultural Center (HCC) is thrilled to host the literary festival emphasizing the inspiration of the written word and the growing Hudson Valley literary community" Theresa Kraft, the board president said. The event is a collaborative event created by the Beacon LitFest committee, steered by Hannah Brooks, HCC board member and Shane Bly Killoran, creator of Hithouse Film, and Ruth Danon founder of the poetry project, Live Writing, all based in Beacon.

"I'm so thrilled to join Ruth & Hannah for this literary journey! And as a life-long theatre practitioner and scholar, I'm unbelievably excited that playwrighting will be included as the literary art that it is," said Killoran via email.

Three consecutive live writing and storytelling intensives, limited to 12 participants each on June 18 at 10 a.m., noon and 2 p.m., according to organizers. The workshops, led by Hudson Valley writers, include: "Live Writing-A Poetry Project" with poet and curator Ruth Danon, PhD; "Is It Memoir? Is It Fiction?" with journalist and memoirist Ken Foster; and "From Stage to Page: Adding Drama to Narrative" with Dramaturg, writer and producer, Shane Bly Killoran.

"Our plan with this festival is to highlight Beacon's growing literary community and expose audiences to fresh and thought-provoking work," said Dr Hannah Brooks, LitFest co-producer and Howland board member, in the release.

Howland Cultural Center and BLF support diverse voices in panelists and audiences and are committed to inclusivity and access to cultural participation, states the release. BLF is providing American Sign Language translation for the main program and reserving a percentage of tickets and workshop seats to community members of limited means, stated organizers. "Our goal," said Kraft, "is building true community--the arts help us get there."

The Howland Cultural Center, is at 477 Main St in Beacon. Tickets for the Saturday and Sunday events are available to the public at howlandculturalcenter.org or at the door. Saturday tickets are $35 in advance ($40 at the door) and Sunday workshop tickets are $25 per session ($30 when purchased at the door).

ThinkDIFFERENTLY/Disability, Dream & Do Baseball Camp Returns to Heritage Financial Park June 17

Dutchess County is sponsoring the annual ThinkDIFFERENTLY/Disability, Dream & Do Baseball Camp, offering children with physical, developmental and intellectual disabilities a free day of baseball fun on June 17th at Heritage Financial Park, formerly known as Dutchess Stadium. A partnership among Dutchess County Government's "ThinkDIFFERENTLY" initiative, Disability Dream & Do (D3day) and the Hudson Valley Renegades, the camp takes place from 9:45 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., providing participants the chance to learn baseball skills from Renegades players and coaches in a supportive and inclusive environment.

Renegades General Manager Tyson Jeffers said, "Our players and coaches love working with these amazing kids and sharing their passion for the game. We are proud to be part of this community and this initiative that celebrates diversity and inclusion."

Volunteers play a crucial role in ensuring the success of this camp, and residents are invited to share their time and talents to help bring their neighbors with special needs a morning of baseball fun they'll long remember. Local individuals, teams, businesses and organizations are invited to sign up to volunteer at d3day.com/register-volunteer.

The spirit of inclusiveness is embodied by the ThinkDIFFERENTLY/Disability, Dream & Do Baseball Camp, and all residents are encouraged to nominate someone who goes above and beyond to help those of all abilities for the "Pulling Each Other Along" Award. The annual award, presented at the conclusion of each game, honors the notable contributions of those who have selflessly helped others in the disability community. Residents are encouraged to nominate someone they know for the "Pulling Each Other Along" Award at d3day.com/peoa-award.

Doug Cornfield, executive director of the Disability, Dream & Do, said, "We are honored to again partner with Dutchess County Government, the Hudson Valley Renegades and other community groups to empower children with disabilities to dream big and do what they love. We know so many in the community share that vision, and we urge residents to go online and recommend nominees for the 'Pulling Each Other Along' Award so we can recognize those in Dutchess County who consistently support individuals with special needs."

Symbolic groundbreaking on firehouse

According to the release, the Project consists of a complete overhaul (gut rehabilitation) of the 1980s-era fire station which is approximately 10,000 square feet and will be stripped down to the steel beams and reconstructed. There will be reconstruction of the adjacent parking lot, "which will reopen for public parking following the Project," it was stated.

The City Council fully-approved the Project, stated city officials. It is projected to take just 14 months to complete, according to officials.

It was approximately 20 years, according to the release, that the Project has been debated and planned.

"The current white stucco exterior with few windows will be replaced by a beautifully-designed brick façade featuring many additional windows so that the modern facility will fit the character of Beacon's historic brick structures. The facility will ensure better operational capacity for the Department, improve training opportunities in the facility, meet all ADA standards, include new safety protections for firefighters (such as dedicated decontamination areas), and provide new bedrooms for the career firefighting staff," according to the release.

"I feel that this project has already boosted the morale within the department. The new firehouse is promised to provide better operational capacity for the department and will meet the needs of the department today as well as for the future," said the fire chief.

Martin seeks another term as mayor in the Village of Fishkill

By Kristine Coulter

The General Village Election for the Village of Fishkill will be held on June 20, from noon to 9 p.m. The polling place is Van Wyck Village Hall, 1095 Main St. in the Village.

Kathleen "Kathy" Martin, who is currently the mayor, is running for reelection. Martin is on the Fight For Your Right line. The mayoral position is for a two-year term. Martin has no opposition.

"I am seeking reelection because this first term just flew by! Two years goes by very quickly. We are in the process of making so many favorable improvements to the Village that I don't want to stop now. I have a great board of trustees to work with, and together we are making positive changes for all Village residents and businesses," said Martin.

Martin stated, "We have accomplished so much this last term. Some of goals we have attained are: partnering with the Fishkill Rotary to clean up the Village portion of the Fishkill Creek, acquisition of a Veterans grant to fund the Hometown Heroes Banner program, redesign and cleanup of the Veteran's Memorial Monument, and offered in-person educational safety seminars for our senior citizens."

Current trustees Anthony Ruggiero and Nick Forlano are each seeking another term. Ruggiero, who is a former city administrator for the City of Beacon, is on the Fight For Your Right line. Forlano is also running on the Fight For Your Right line.

The term for Village trustee is two years.

Looking ahead, Martin said, "Some of the items that I am focused on accomplishing next are the paving of the Village section of Merritt Blvd., continuing improvement of our park and recreation, concluding the Wastewater Treatment facility expansion project, and celebrating the 125th anniversary of the incorporation of the Village of Fishkill. I aim to keep the tax rate as low as possible, and to be mindful of spending."

Village of Fishkill Mayor Kathy Martin is seeking re-election.

Beacon BOE member resigns

By Kristine Coulter

A school board member of the Beacon City School District Board of Education (BOE) has resigned. It was stated at the Board's June 5th meeting that board member John Galloway Jr. resigned. Galloway, who graduated from Beacon High School, was appointed to an open seat on the board in October 2020. Galloway was elected to a seat in May 2021. His term was until June 30, 2024.

In an email to fellow board members and Superintendent of Schools Dr.

Matthew Landahl dated June 3, Galloway partly wrote: "I am emailing you all today to let you know that unfortunately I am going to have to resign from the board. At this point in my life I am unable to give my full attention to this responsibility and its obligations due to a lot of personal things going on in my life leading up to this moment."

Beacon Free Press received Galloway's email through a Freedom of Information Law (FOIL) request.

Galloway also noted, "It has truly been a pleasure to work, listen, and learn from each and every one of you."

"I just want to say thank you to him from me," said Landahl during the meeting. He added, "It was such a pleasure to get to know John." Landahl said Galloway had many connections to the community and insight and he recently went through the district as a student.

President of the BOE Meredith Heuer said she spoke with Galloway. Heuer said she was impressed he was on the board at this young age. "I'm grateful to have gotten to know him better," she said.

Heuer told the Beacon Free Press, "I am personally really sad to see John go. He was a pleasure to work with and it was great having his perspective as a younger person who when through our schools. I wish him all the best."

"Moving forward I look forward to supporting all of you in the coming years. Our entire district is shaping out to be an open armed community for people from all walks of life and behind all of the work that is being done you can for sure see that the work is working," Galloway stated in his email. "Good luck to you all and most importantly thank you for everything."

Heuer noted, "The board will be discussing next steps in July."

During the meeting Heuer stated, "I think we should hold this discussion until Eric Schetter is sworn in and we'll have what the board will be," explained Heuer. Schetter was elected to the BOE in May.

Pride month celebrates LGBTQ+ community, services available for individuals, families

To the Editor:

June is Pride Month. As many people are celebrating the LGBTQ+ community, it is important to reflect on the support available for individuals exploring their gender expression, gender identity and sexual orientation. According to NAMI, LGBTQ+ individuals are twice as likely as heterosexual individuals to experience mental health struggles; fortunately, there are services available to assist these individuals and their families. At Coordinated Behavioral Health Services (CBHS), we partner with wellness providers throughout the Hudson Valley to connect individuals to support within their community. This includes services for mental health and substance use issues, empowerment and peer support services, educational and employment services and many more depending on you and your needs.

For members of the LGBTQ+ community, these services can be especially helpful. LGBTQ+ individuals often must deal with discrimination because of their sexual or gender identity. This, compounded with stigma and fear of judgment, can make it difficult to find assistance.

This Pride Month, and every month, let's remember to be an ally to the LGBTQ+ community and to lead with acceptance and compassion. If you or a family member are struggling or unsure of your next step, please reach out and we will help you find support.

Beephan backs bill to honor Zone Sergeant James G. Sweeney

Assemblyman Anil Beephan announced the passage of his first bill, honoring the esteemed service and memory of Zone Sergeant James G. Sweeney, on June 6. The newly-amended highway law designates a portion of the state highway system as the "Zone Sergeant James G. Sweeney Memorial Bridge," commemorating Sgt Sweeney's exemplary contributions to the community and his fellow State Troopers.

The designated memorial bridge spans Lime Kiln Road, crossing Interstate-84 in the town of East Fishkill. This dedication will serve as a lasting tribute to Zone Sergeant Sweeney, recognizing his unwavering dedication and selfless commitment to public service throughout his remarkable career.

Zone Sgt. James G. Sweeney joined the New York State Police following his service with the NYPD, bringing his invaluable experience and expertise to Dutchess and Putnam counties. Over the course of nearly three decades, Trooper Sweeney ascended to the esteemed rank of Zone Sergeant within the State Police, solidifying his reputation as a respected leader and a pillar of strength within the law enforcement community.

Beyond his dutiful service as a State

Trooper, Sgt. Sweeney actively participated in various organizations, including the Ancient Order of Hibernians, the Fraternal Order of Police, the International Police Association, and the Knights of Columbus. Additionally, his tireless advocacy efforts led to the renaming of two overpasses in honor of fallen colleagues and played a crucial role in the establishment of the State Highway Memorial Task Force.

Zone Sgt. Sweeney succumbed to cancer in 2021, a direct consequence of his heroic assignment at Ground Zero following the events of September 11, 2001, stated Beephan. This legislation serves as a fitting tribute to his extraordinary service and unwavering commitment to protecting and serving his community.

Assemblyman Beephan expressed his deepest gratitude to his fellow legislators, Governor Kathy Hochul, and all those who supported this bill, recognizing the profound impact that Zone Sgt. Sweeney had on the lives of countless individuals. The Zone Sergeant James G. Sweeney Memorial Bridge stands as a lasting testament to his legacy and will continue to inspire future generations of law enforcement officers to uphold the highest standards of service and dedication.

"I am delighted to be this year's chair of the Community Foundations' Garden Party event. It is our opportunity to recognize and extend heartfelt appreciation to our honorees Eli Basch, David and Randi Petrovits and Nat Prentice," remarked Jane Garrity, Garden Party Chair and Citizens Bank President, "The Community Foundations successfully invests and supports our many non-profit organizations. ## Jacobson sponsored bill allows Beacon, Poughkeepsie to collect hotel-motel tax Asemblymember Jonathan Jacobson (D-104) passed two bills on June 6, enabling the cities of Beacon (A06556) and Poughkeepsie (A06555) to collect a hotel-motel tax of up to 5%. The legislation also includes Airbnbs and bed and breakfasts.

Jacobson said, "Airbnbs are popping up across the Hudson Valley. This tax gives the cities of Beacon and Poughkeepsie the option of collecting a local tax of up to 5% to help offset the costs of supporting these businesses.

"I have previously passed similar legislation for the City and Town of Newburgh. The benefit of this tax is that it is almost exclusively paid by visitors rather than area residents," Jacobson concluded.

The bills now await passage in the Senate, where they are sponsored by Senator Rob Rolison.

Melanie's Law unanimously passes NYS Senate

State Senator Rob Rolison (39th District) released a statement on June 7 following the upper chamber's unanimous passage of S.6288, also known as Melanie's Law. Named for homicide victim and Dutchess County resident Melanie Chianese, Rolison re-introduced the public safety legislation earlier this year; former Senator Sue Serino was the bill's original sponsor. The version of Melanie's Law which passed the Senate today was co-sponsored by Rolison and sponsored by Senator Michelle Hinchey, a Democrat. The legislation now awaits passage in the state Assembly, where it also enjoys bipartisan support.

"Today's (June 7) Senate passage of Melanie's Law is a testament to bipartisanship and what happens when lawmakers work together to get things done. Public safety should be a top priority for government. This is a victory for Melanie's family, especially her mother Cheryl and her young son, and all victims of domestic abuse. I am proud to have co-sponsored this critical bill to address a major loophole in current criminal procedure law that will protect more family members and loved ones from violence," said Rolison.

Renegades stay in first place

time was out, allowing Flores and Henson to score on the error, and Richardson to advance to third. Torrealba singled to plate Richardson and put Hudson Valley in front 8-3.

On Tuesday night, the Renegades opened the series with a 13-1 victory. The Renegades pounded out 16 hits in the victory.

The Renegades jumped in front in a battle between the top two teams in the SAL North on a three-run double by Marcos Cabrera in the top of the second off Minor League rehabber Jon Duplantier. Hudson Valley added another tally in the top of the third when a throwing error allowed Spencer

Jones to score and extend the lead to 4-0. In the top of the fourth, a balk by Tristan Garnett brought Ben Cowles home, and Jones drove in Grant Richardson with an RBI single to extend the advantage to 6-0. Richardson had a huge game, going 4-for-4 with a double and three runs scored while reaching base in all five of his plate appearances.

Josh Maciejewski (1-0), Mason Vinyard, Clay Aguilar and Harrison Cohen combined for 4.1 scoreless innings out of the bullpen to close out the game. The win gave Maciejewski his 10th with Hudson Valley, making him the winningest left-handed pitcher in Renegades history, and just the second Renegades pitcher to ever record double digit wins.

Wednesday's game was postponed due to the poor air quality from the wildfires in Canada.

That meant a double header on Thursday, and the Renee's did not fare well, losing a pair of pitchers duels, 1-0 and 2-1.

In the opener, the Renegades got a great pitching performance by Zach Messinger (0-4), who allowed just one run on three hits across 5.0 innings, striking out six and walking two. However, in the bottom of the fourth, he allowed a solo home run to Casey Martin that stood up as the game's lone run. Messenger has been a hard-luck pitcher all year. He does not have a victory all season, but his earned run average is below 3.

Matt Osterberg (2-3) and Tommy McCollum shut out Hudson Valley while limiting the team to only three hits in the game, all singles.

In the nightcap, the Renegades struck first in the top of the third inning. Luis Santos ripped a double down the left field line and scored after two passed balls advanced him to third and then home. Tyrone Yulie turned in one of his better performances of the season, but allowed a run on a Jared Carr RBI double in the bottom of the fifth to tie the game at 1-1. Yulie (1-4) allowed two runs on three hits in 5.2 innings, walking three and striking out three. In the bottom of the sixth, Jersey Shore took the lead on an RBI single by Casey Martin scoring Marcus Lee Sang from second base to give the BlueClaws a 2-1 lead.

Thorpe's dedication brings weekly pitching honor

By Rich Thomaselli

For the second time in three weeks, the South Atlantic League (SAL) Player of the Week is wearing a Hudson Valley Renegades uniform.

Drew Thorpe has been named South Atlantic League Pitcher of the Week for the week of May 29-June 4.

He had a bravura performance that triggered the award.

In his lone start of the week, Thorpe threw a career-high 8.0 shutout innings, allowing just one hit while walking two and striking out seven. He became the first Renegades pitcher to throw 8.0 innings without allowing a run since Aug. 17, 2008, when Tyree Hayes threw 9.0 shutout innings in a complete game shutout at the Lowell Spinners. It was only the fourth time since 2005 that a Renegades starter completed 8.0 innings in a start.

It was one of the best pitching performances in all of minor league baseball this year. He is one of only three pitchers in minor league baseball this year to throw eight shutout innings.

"Thorpe's dedication to continue to get better week-to-week and between starts has been exemplary," said Renegades Pitching Coach Preston Claiborne. "From the education work he does, to crafting pitches and executing a game plan, he's shown momentous growth. Drew never changes his demeanor, whether he has a quality outing or scuffles. His desire to be excellent is only augmented by how monstrous a competitor he is."

In recognition of his achievement, the Renegades will make a donation of $500 in Thorpe's name to the Maria Fareri Children's Hospital at Westchester Medical Center Health Network.

Thorpe, 22, was drafted by the Yankees in the second round of the 2022 First-Year Player Draft out of Cal Poly. Beginning his professional career this season with the Renegades, he leads the SAL in innings pitched (51.2), and ranks tied for 2nd in wins (4), and sixth in strikeouts (59). He is ranked as the Yankees' top pitching prospect and #6 overall by MLB Pipeline, and Baseball America ranks Thorpe as the #2 pitching prospect and #7 overall in the organization.

He joins RHP Juan Carela, who was named SAL Pitcher of the Week for the week of April 17-23, and Aaron Palensky who was named SAL Player of the Week for the week of May 22-28 as Renegades to garner a weekly award this season.

Drew Thorpe of the Renegades won Pitcher of the Week honors with a career-high 8.0 shutout innings, allowing just one hit while walking two and striking out seven.

TYSON'S TIDBITS!

Looking at a great summer and the fun of brainstorming sessions

Each week, writer Rich Thomaselli and General Manager Tyson Jeffers discuss the Hudson Valley Renegades in particular and minor league baseball in general.

What is your measure of success? Like, do you set goals or ticket sales and things like that?

There are certain metrics that we try to hit. Butts in the seats are certainly one of them. Another is our relationship with our sponsors and how do we maximize those. At the end of the day, we are in our 29th year. But there are always going to be ebbs and flows. It's a long game, and you always have to be looking ahead. A lot of it has to do with the talent we have in the front office. A lot of it has to do with all the people who are committed to the Renegades. Right now, we have one of the most successful teams we've ever had.

You talked about the summer being your bread-and-butter season. Is it shaping up to be that way?

Yeah, it is. This past Saturday (June 3) was our best night of the year. There's a lot of positive momentum right now going into what I guess would be considered the "real" days of summer. We're looking at the pre-sale numbers for the rest of the year, and they are looking pretty good. We hope people come out and continue to support the Renegades.

Are there any fun elements to the job for you?

There are stressful days, sure, but it's always fun. We're running a business that is predicated on selling fun. And we can't sell fun unless we have fun ourselves. We always think about how to have fun and engage the fans. You should see some of our brainstorm meetings. They are hilarious.

I mean, we would be crucified if we tried some of the stuff that we talk about. But we always have to consider how it's going to impact the fans. But we do have a lot of fun brainstorming ideas and then executing the ones that we like. Seeing them come to fruition is enjoyable. Beyond that, you can just step outside into a professional ballpark. What would be a better workplace than that?

HV Shakespeare Festival receives $10 million from NYS Arts Council

The Hudson Valley Shakespeare Festival has announced a grant award totaling $10 million from the New York State Council on the Arts (NYSCA) to support the construction of a LEED-Certified outdoor theater, and the ecological land restoration of their new 98-acre site in Garrison.

This grant is part of a record large capital project funding announcement by NYSCA, which totals over $90.5 million distributed to 19 projects across New York State. The $10 million award represents one of the largest expressions of support by NYSCA in the state, marking a milestone achievement for HVSF as it receives capital funding from NYSCA for the first time.

Governor Kathy Hochul expressed her commitment to New York's diverse artistic and creative endeavors, stating, "From New York City to the North Country, we are investing in our state's robust arts and culture sector to ensure all New Yorkers, regardless of their background, have access to the transformative power of art. Our unprecedented support for this shared vision of accessible and sustainable cultural spaces will result in a stronger economy, more jobs, and improved community and personal health for New Yorkers and our visitors from around the globe."

The news of the NYSCA grant comes during the quiet phase of a large-scale capital campaign designed to transform a 98-acre site in Garrison, a former golf course, into HVSF's first-ever permanent home, and build a solid foundation for environmental and financial sustainability for the company's future.

A significant portion of the grant will be used to support the construction of a new open-air theater designed by the celebrated architecture firm Studio Gang, founded and led by Jeanne Gang. The timber-frame structure is slated to be the nation's first purpose-built theater to achieve LEED Platinum certification from the U.S. Green Building Council (USGBC). The funds will also be used for the ecological restoration of the site, creating native meadows, new picnic lawns, and new ADA accessible pathways. These initiatives all align with HVSF's commitment to achieving carbon neutrality for the campus by 2040.

"This transformative grant empowers HVSF's next chapter as a national model for environmental sustainability in the performing arts and underscores our emergence as a cultural anchor in the region," remarked Kendra Ekelund, Managing Director at HVSF. "We are deeply grateful to Governor Hochul for her long-standing support of our project, which began with her visit to our site during her tenure as Lieutenant Governor in June of 2021. This grant represents an investment not just in HVSF's mission, but also in the numerous communities we serve in the mid-Hudson region. We are so thankful to NYSCA for this robust and profound investment from New York State."

Davis McCallum, Artistic Director at HVSF, added, "We are honored to be a part of this historic investment from Governor Hochul and NYSCA in the future of the Arts in New York State. The funding will not only allow HVSF to create a permanent, open-air theater venue in the heart of the Hudson Valley, a unique experience that will inspire audiences for generations to come, but it will also enable us to enhance backstage facilities for our company of artists, and make key improvements to the visitor experience for our audiences. Our aspiration is to be the greenest theater in the country, and this remarkable support from NYSCA advances us mightily on the path to that goal."

In her live announcement on June 6, Governor Hochul added, "We're going to continue bringing Shakespeare to the Hudson Valley, and I had a chance to visit and witness the incredible work that you're doing. And I just knew that we had to continue supporting this. There are so many different ways that you can touch the soul. It's with your eyes. It's with your ears, listening to the music. It's also just becoming engaged in a story - a story that's over, I don't know, 500 years old, hundreds of years old, that it continues to this day to tell stories that have incredible relevance."

NYSCA Executive Director Mara Manus said, "We are immensely grateful to Governor Hochul and the New York State Legislature for this historic level of capital grant-making. These critical investments will support visionary expansions, essential facility improvements, and community-building strategies that will promote health, safety, and accessibility. We commend the Hudson Valley Shakespeare Festival for their bold and inspirational project that will deliver the measurable benefits of the arts to New Yorkers and our visitors for generations to come."

NYSCA Chair Katherine Nicholls said, "Capital projects for the arts are an investment in our communities, our health, and our prosperity for decades to come. On behalf of the Council and staff, I congratulate the Hudson Valley Shakespeare Festival on its vision and dedication to serving the residents and visitors of New York and we look forward to seeing all that will flourish from this initiative."

NYSCA's Large Capital Improvement Grants for Arts and Culture support arts and cultural institutions across the state that are undertaking impactful, large-scale capital improvements. Grants range from $2 million to $10 million for projects with a total cost of $4 million or more. This funding will support investments to expand cultural programming, reach new and diverse audiences, and promote accessibility. These grants will also help advance the State's goals around diversity, equity and inclusion and will require all grantees to commit to social equity initiatives and access plans that serve all New Yorkers. NYSCA's Large Capital Improvement Grants program is administered in coordination with Empire State Development, which reviews applications to evaluate the potential for projects to support local placemaking, community development, and downtown revitalization efforts.

Providing significant in-kind donations N&S Supply and California Closets helped create a beautiful home for Romi. The dedicated efforts of our many volunteers, and these donors make possible this safe and financially sustainable home for Romi.

Maureen Brennan Lashlee, Habitat Dutchess CEO, stated "Habitat homeowners help build their own homes alongside subcontractors and volunteers. This "skin in the game" model helps families new to home ownership understand the construction of their homes and be a better homeowner. Because their family's mortgage is based on their income there is a funding gap between our cost to build and their mortgage. Generous community donors help fill the gap with cash and in-kind assistance."

Libby Funeral Home hosts Butterfly Release Memorial

Approximately 150 people gathered at the Beacon Elks Lodge on Sunday June 4th for Libby Funeral Home & Cremations Services annual Butterfly Release Memorial. A brief service of reflection was led by local pastor Catriel Eraso from the Hope Church (Church of God) in Glenham. Libby Funeral Home's 'Funeral Celebrant' Carrie Gibson and Grief Coach Lisette Cheresson shared beautiful words. The music was provided by Beacon native Isabel Quiñones, who is always willing to share her beautiful musical talent with those who assembled.

This year the special guest was Ruthann Disotell, who has a national grief awareness support, she offers funeral homes a grief tool of a lapel pin which is in the shape of a leaf, symbolic of the family tree. Libby's participates and offers a leaf to every family that they serve at their time of need (for more information, visit <https://memorialeaf.com/about>).
