Ryan wins special election, primary

Pat Ryan

Marc Molinaro

By Kate Goldsmith

Ulster County Executive Pat Ryan (D, WOR) prevailed over Dutchess County Executive Marc Molinaro (R, C) in the special election on Aug. 23 to fill the Congressional District 19 (CD-19) seat left vacant when former Rep. Antonio Delgado was appointed Lieutenant Governor. Ryan took 51.07 percent of the vote, with Molinaro garnering 48.75 percent.

Results were unofficial with all districts reporting.

Ryan will serve as District 19's representative in Washington through Dec. 31. He also won the Democratic primary for the new Congressional District 18, overwhelmingly defeating opponents Aisha Mills and Moses Mugulusi.

There was low turnout for this special election, with overall participation at about 28 percent of what the NYS Board of Elections calls "active registered voters" in the district. The current 19th Congressional district includes all of the following counties: Columbia, Delaware, Greene, Otsego, Schoharie, Sullivan and Ulster; and parts of Broome, Dutchess, Montgomery and Rensselaer.

In the Nov. 8 General Election, Ryan will face off against Colin Schmitt (R, C) in this new district, which includes all of Dutchess County and parts of Ulster and Orange counties.

"Choice was on the ballot. Freedom was on the ballot, and tonight choice and freedom won," Ryan posted on his candidate Facebook page. "We voted like our democracy was on the line because it is. We upended everything we thought we knew about politics and did it together."

He added: "NY-19, it will be my honor to serve you in Congress."

Molinaro issued a statement commenting on the result.

"While this is not the outcome we hoped for, we knew this was an uphill battle when Democrats scheduled this special election on the same day as two Democratic Primaries with five candidates pushing their turnout," he said.

Molinaro will also be on the ballot in November, as the Republican candidate in the new Congressional District 19, which tracks north and west of Dutchess. His Democratic challenger will be Josh Riley, who won his primary against Jamie Cheney with nearly 62 percent of the vote.

"As we look forward, every midterm election is a referendum on the party in power. ... Everyone in this district, in America, deserves a government that respects and serves them," Molinaro stated. "In November, help is on the way as I'll be running in a new district, with a new opponent - and we will continue to offer solutions for all families in Upstate New York."

Wappinger resident organizes drive to help Kentucky flood victims

By Kristine Coulter

Dutchess County residents pitched in to assist residents of Kentucky who lost everything from the devastating flooding that occurred earlier this summer. The floodwaters wiped out houses and businesses in the Bluegrass State. According to reports, the flooding caused at least 93 deaths.

Joe Torres, a resident of the Town of Wappinger, recently organized "Backpacks + For Kentucky," which was a school supply drive for students in Kentucky.

"I was watching news reports of the devastation. I saw at least three school buses turned over and lying among the debris. I immediately thought of the kids who would not be able to attend school because of lack of buses, among other things. Initially, I wanted to lead a caravan of other school bus drivers willing to spend a week or two filling in while the Kentucky drivers try to recover, but liability and other issues got in the way of that. So, I started a collection drive instead and first contacted the Kentucky Governor's Office on July 29th," explained Torres, via email.

Among the items that could be donated were backpacks filled with school supplies, children's books, toys, bottled water, snacks, canned goods and clothing and toiletries for children and adults.

The collections were taken up at the East Fishkill Town Hall, on Route 376 in Hopewell Junction, on Aug. 23 and Aug. 24. Volunteers also were at the Wappinger Town Hall on Aug. 25 and Aug. 26 collecting items.

The drives were sponsored by Total Transportation, which is a division of MAT Corp.

"When I came up with the idea, I sent a proposal to Total Transportation Regional Manager Vincent Marzella. He responded that the bus company would support the effort by making available as many buses as would be needed," responded Torres when asked whom he would like to thank. "Also, Town of East Fishkill Councilman Anil "A.J." Beephan, Town Supervisor Nicholas D'Alessandro, and Wappinger Town Supervisor Dick Thurston for posting the flyer on their respective Town Facebook pages and allowing me to use their parking lots as a collection site."

Torres noted, "Though I had an idea of creating a flyer, Angela Cavaretta of AC Vinyl Designs, designed and created the flyer within a couple of hours." He also thanked "everyone who either donated, helped promote, or otherwise supported this relief effort has my ultimate gratitude and appreciation."

As for the message he hopes the Kentucky students and their families receive along with the backpacks, Torres said, "You are not alone. We are one people and we want to help. We have you in our prayers."

Funding for HV airports announced

U.S. Senate Majority Leader Chuck Schumer and U.S. Senator Kirsten Gillibrand announced $3,668,460 in federal funding for three Hudson Valley airports: Hudson Valley Regional, Westchester County, and Sullivan County International. The funding was allocated through the Federal Aviation Administration's Airport Improvement Program (AIP) and will be used to improve snow removal operations and enhance airfield safety.

Schumer said in a statement, "Transportation connections to the wider world are essential for community development and economic opportunity, and I have long been a champion of bringing those connections to Westchester, Sullivan, Dutchess, and beyond. The funding announced today means opportunities for more jobs, more growth, and more investment in the future. I will always work with the community to fight for the Hudson Valley's economic take off."

"Airports in the Hudson Valley serve over one million travelers each year," a portion of Gillibrand's statement said. "They need to be safe, modern, and

Jet ski accident on Hudson

County to participate in STOP-DWI Labor crackdown enforcement

The New Hamburg Fire Department was dispatched on August 24 for an accident involving a jet ski on the Hudson River. City of Poughkeepsie and Middle Hope Boat were dispatched under the Hudson River Boat Plan.

According to a post on the New Hamburg Fire Department Facebook page from its chief, upon arrival New Hamburg personnel under direction of Asst. Chief Moore located two patients in the water with two heavily damaged jet skis. The victims were removed from the water and treated by two New Hamburg EMTs. The patients were brought to the gas dock at White's Marina and patient care turned over to Mobile Life.

According to the post, both patients were transported to MidHudson Regional Hospital. The Jet Skis were secured until they were brought back to shore by officials with the Command Post at White's Marina.

Dutchess County Executive Marc Molinaro has announced law enforcement agencies throughout Dutchess County are participating in a special enforcement effort to crack down on impaired driving this Labor Day weekend. The statewide STOP-DWI High Visibility Engagement Campaign is currently underway and will conclude following Labor Day, Monday, Sept. 5th.

Labor Day is one of the busiest travel times of the year and marks the unofficial end of summer. New York State Police, county sheriffs' offices, municipal law enforcement agencies and local STOP-DWI programs are collaborating across the state and are out in force during this coordinated effort to reduce the number of impaired driving-related injuries and deaths.

Molinaro said, "For more than a century, the United States has honored the American worker by celebrating Labor Day, recognizing the tremendous work and accomplishments that have made this country great. Many will celebrate Labor Day weekend, but we ask those to plan to include alcohol in their observance of this holiday to also plan for a safe ride home. Safety takes no holiday, and as always, we thank the devoted men and women of law enforcement who work tirelessly to rid our roadway of impaired drivers – during this holiday weekend and every day."

According to the U.S. Department of Transportation's National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, 11,654 people were killed in motor vehicle crashes in 2020 that involved an alcohol-impaired driver. On average, more than 10,000 people were killed each year from 2016 to 2020, and one person was killed in a drunk-driving crash every 45 minutes in 2020.

Highly visible, highly publicized efforts like the STOP-DWI High Visibility Engagement Campaign aim to further reduce the incidence of drunk and impaired driving.

Residents are encouraged to have a sober plan. STOP-DWI New York urges residents to download its mobile app, "Have a Plan," which enables drivers to find a safe ride home www.stopdwi.org/mobileapp. Impaired driving is completely preventable.

Bridge to be replaced on Washington Avenue in Fishkill

The Dutchess County Department of Public Works (DPW) has announced work to replace a bridge on Washington Avenue in the Town of Fishkill is expected to begin on or about September 6th. The bridge, located over the Fishkill Creek at the intersection of Maple Street and Petticoat Lane, will be replaced to ensure the safety and stability of the bridge and roadway for motorists.

Project work will involve replacing the structure with a new, wider bridge that will include sidewalks on both sides. The new bridge will be built adjacent to the existing structure, allowing the current bridge and roadway to remain open during construction, however there will be occasional single-lane traffic patterns over the course of the project. The new bridge is expected to open to traffic in the summer of 2023.

Washington Avenue averages approximately 5,544 vehicles per day.

Motorists are advised to plan for additional time and to exercise extra caution near the construction site, obey the posted speed limits, traffic advisory signs, and the directions from flaggers in the work zone to ensure the safety of workers and other motorists.

For information, contact the Dutchess County Department of Public Works' Engineering Division at 845-486-2925.

Young people learn financial, computer skills during two-day County program

Dutchess County Executive Marc Molinaro congratulated eight local young people who completed the Dutchess County Department of Community and Family Services' (DCFS) two-day "Youth Financial Literacy & Computer Training Program," an annual course that teaches participants valuable financial and computer skills.

DCFS again partnered with the Dutchess County Workforce Investment Board and the Dutchess One Stop to coordinate financial, computer and budgeting training for local young people, many of whose families receive services from DCFS.

The young participants began this week's intensive program by learning how to identify their skillset, then composing a résumé and cover letter to grab potential employers' attention. They also gained important computer skills, including learning the dangers and appropriate use of the Internet and social media; and they learned about financial literacy, budgeting and using formulas in Microsoft Excel through a hands-on, real-life scenario where they made budget decisions for a family of four. In addition to Excel, participants learned how to use Microsoft Word and PowerPoint to complete school assignment and projects. The participants concluded the program by learning about the Dutchess County One Stop Career and Employment Center, as well as the available services to help them find jobs.

Molinaro said, "I'm proud of each of the young men and women who have completed the Dutchess County's Youth Financial Literacy & Computer Training Program – young people who have dedicated themselves to preparing for a successful future for themselves and their families. Dutchess County thanks its partners for their continued collaboration, make this annual program a success for the hundreds of participants who have benefited from the lessons it teaches. I congratulate each of today's graduates, and we, as a county, look forward to seeing how the skills and resources they've gained this week will result in bright futures."

Ranging in age from 13 to 18, the students were required to achieve satisfactory attendance and satisfactory grades in school to qualify for this week's program. After successfully completing the program, each participant earned a laptop computer and printer to help them follow their goals of attending college and pursuing a career.

Since its inception in 2007, the computer training program has served 276 youth. Ninety-five percent of youth participating in the program from 2011 to 2021 are no longer on Temporary Assistance.

This program has been recognized as a best practice for youth job preparation and was showcased at the 2015 summer conference of the New York Public Welfare Association. The program is funded through the Temporary Assistance for Needy Families program and the Foster Care Block Grant.

Council on Addiction Prevention & Education offers prevention programs to county schools

Beginning in the 2022/2023 school year, the Council on Addiction Prevention and Education (CAPE) will offer two new prevention programs to middle and high school students of Dutchess County. The first of these is PreVenture, an evidence-based prevention program that uses personality trait-targeted interventions to promote youth mental health and skill development with the overall goal of delaying substance use. CAPE will also introduce Rock In Prevention, a program that harnesses the power of music to teach students Social Emotional Learning (SEL) and other life skills that help prevent bullying and adolescent substance use/abuse.

"We are eager to bring these innovative offerings to the students of Dutchess County," said Cristine Groenewegen, agency director of CAPE. "By giving students more resources that meet them where they are, we believe we can have a strong effect on preventing substance use and promoting positive coping skills for students."

Along with these two new programs, CAPE will continue to offer existing programs with proven results for area youth, such as Teen Intervene. For more information on these new offerings, please contact Cristine Groenewegen at either cgroenewegen@capedc.org or 845-765-8301 ex. 103.

Annual Hudson Valley Hot-Air Balloon Festival set September 2-4

The Dutchess County Chamber of Commerce and JPMorgan Chase present the 31st Annual Hudson Valley Hot-Air Balloon Festival at Tymor Park in Union Vale from September 2-4.

Hot-air balloonists from all over the country come to the annual festival for the 100 scheduled ascensions throughout the weekend. A full weekend of attractions features food and souvenir vendors, a beer and wine tent, live music, hot-air balloon illumination moon glows, fireworks, helicopter rides, and of course, both tethered balloon rides and full hot-air balloon flights! Inclusive family activities include a walk-about balloon, barrel pong, corn hole, giant Jenga, can jam, bocce, ladder ball, giant chess, washer toss, giant connect 4, yard dice, a bubble zone, and more! Live music will be played each evening from 3-8pm, this year featuring musicians Jordan Stoner, Lucky House, and Seven Days Gone.

Tymor Park treats spectators to a 360-degree view of the balloons, and gives the crowd the opportunity to watch the balloons inflate up close, and to see the balloon crews in action. Live pilot presentations, "All About Ballooning," will take place each afternoon at 4 p.m.

Activities will be available rain or shine, however, balloon launches are weather and wind-permitting and are at the sole discretion of the pilots. Hot-air balloons may only inflate and fly in acceptable conditions, and the safety of our attendees is the top priority.

Reservations to attend the festival must be made in advance on a per person basis, for a donation of $15 per person for afternoon/evening admission, $8 per person for morning admission, $25.95 per person for a weekend all-access pass, and free for children under the age of 3. Donations are non-refundable and non-transferable. The reservation includes all activities except balloon rides, and is only good for one person admission on the date and time selected. Full hot-air balloon flights are $300 per person for a 25-45minute long experience. Tethered hot-air balloon flights are $25 per person, payable in cash only during the festival. Tickets are not sold at the gate; you must purchase them online in advance at dcroc.org/balloonfesttickets. For morning reservations, parking is at Tymor Park, 249 Duncan Road, Lagrangeville. For evening reservations, parking is at Vail Farm Elementary School, 1659 E. Noxon Road, Lagrangeville; a shuttle bus will bring you to Tymor Park, less than three miles away.

For any questions, check out the Frequently Asked Questions page at balloonfesthv.com or call the Central Hudson Gas and Electric Corporation Balloon Festival Hotline at 845-454-1701.

"This is truly a fine example of our community coming together to deliver an uplifting event, and it is always great to see the crowds enjoying it up close and personal, as well as the economic benefits it brings to our business community," said Frank M. Castella, who is the president and CEO of the Dutchess County Regional Chamber of Commerce.

The Chamber thanks the sponsors of the 31st Annual Hudson Valley Hot-Air Balloon Festival.

Clearwater hosts participants in youth empowerment program

Participants in the Young Women at the Helm youth program.

After a two-year COVID hiatus, Clearwater welcomed the return of their Young Women at the Helm youth empowerment program last week. Participants ranged from ages 14-18 years, from Beacon, New York City, Poughkeepsie Westchester County and New Jersey. This entirely donor-funded program is designed to empower young women by engaging them in a wide range of physical and academic activities. Onboard, participants learned and practiced sailing deck skills, knot tying, coiling lines, and navigation. They also learned about the Hudson River through a variety of lenses, including water quality, ecology, and Indigenous Peoples.

In the evening, the group had a sunset seine on the beach in Alpine and camped on shore, where they shared reflections on the day, asked crew questions about Clearwater, sailing, college, career paths, and of course, they sang together.

Participant Samantha L. said, "Everyone here is so different, which meant that every conversation was different and I got to learn a lot more." Samantha continued, "I never thought I would feel so in touch with myself and with the earth that I do now. Being on this boat and camping gives a lot of time to just stop and take in the world around you, which we don't get often in regular life. I've definitely grown as a person and had so much fun trying new things."

The program was led by Outreach and Engagement Manager Amali Knobloch, First Mate Fredi Guevara-Prip, Captain Annika Savio, Program Director Ruthie Gold, and the entire crew of the Clearwater.

Program Director Ruthie Gold commented on this year's program, "It was amazing to see the transformation of our participants from shy, quiet, teens, to funny, bright, passionate-about-the-River friends in a matter of hours! We are thrilled that we were able to share the magic of the Hudson and the Clearwater with these young women and look forward to offering Young Women at the Helm and our other Youth Empowerment Programs next summer."

Here's the playoff situation for the HV Renegades

By Rich Thomaselli

Once again, the Hudson Valley Renegades are in the thick of the playoff chase in minor league baseball.

The Renegades, the Class A farm team of the New York Yankees, play in the North Division of the South Atlantic League.

Like all of minor league baseball, the 132-game season is divided into a first half and second half. Hudson Valley was barely a .500 team in the first half and finished behind Aberdeen in the vision. But Renegades caught fire in the second half and currently sit at 66-53 overall and 32-21 in the second half, a half-game ahead of Brooklyn. Both the Renegades and the Cyclones have 12 regular-season games remaining.

Now, if you're an astute baseball fan, you see right away that the math doesn't work. Well, there's where the key element could come into play. Hudson Valley technically would have 13 games remaining at this point, but it was decided that a rainout early in the season would not be made up. So, if the Renegades and Brooklyn continue this neck-and-neck run to the finish, it's possible one of the teams could finish a half-game ahead – or behind.

We know this much – the winner of the second half of the North Division will play first-half North champion Aberdeen in the South Atlantic semifinals. The series will be best 2-out-of-3. Either Hudson Valley or Brooklyn will host Game 1 before traveling to Aberdeen for Game 2 and, if necessary, Game 3.

The winner of that series will play the South Division champ for the league title, also in a best-of-three series.

ROUNDUP

Renegades take 5-of-6 from Hickory to stay in first place

By Rich Thomaselli

Kyle Battle delivered a go-ahead home-run as part of a three-run seventh inning, lifting the Hudson Valley Renegades to a 9-7 victory over the Hickory Crawdads on Sunday afternoon at Dutchess Stadium.

Battle went 2-for-3 with a decisive two-run single, a double, a run scored and two stolen bases in his third game with the Renegades.

With the win, the Renegades took five of six from the Crawdads and remained a half-game ahead of Brooklyn for first place in the North Division of the South Atlantic League (see separate story on playoff scenarios).

Hudson Valley jumped ahead in the bottom of the first against Hickory starter Dane Acker. With the bases loaded and one out, Carlos Narvaez lined a three-run triple and Ben Cowles lifted a sacrifice fly to give the Renegades a 4-0 lead.

The Crawdads leveled it up in the top of the fourth against Renegades starter Blane Abeyta. Daniel Mateo knocked an RBI single, Chris Seise slammed an RBI double, Cristian Inoa skied a sacrifice fly, and Cody Freeman laced an RBI single to tie the game at four.

In the top of the fourth, Mateo drew a walk with the bases loaded to push Hickory ahead 5-4. The Crawdads plated another in the top of the sixth. Josh Hatcher drilled an RBI single, scoring Angel Aponte from second to extend the lead to 6-4.

Abeyta lasted 4.2 innings, allowing six runs on nine hits, walking six and striking out three.

Hudson Valley pulled even in the bottom of the sixth with three timely doubles. Kyle Battle doubled, stole third, and Eduardo Torrealba smoked an RBI double. Trey Sweeney followed with a screaming double down the right field line, plating Torrealba to tie the game at 6-6.

In the top of the seventh, Randy Florentino floated a sacrifice fly off Edgar Barclay to give the Crawdads a 7-6 edge.

In the bottom half, the Renegades stormed back to take the lead. T.J. Rumfield, Narvaez, and Cowles walked sequentially against Michael Brewer (2-2) to load the bases. With the bases full and no one out, Sanchez grounded an RBI single and Battle stroked a two-run single to put Hudson Valley in front 9-7.

Barclay (6-4) earned the win, tossing 2.1 hitless innings of relief, allowing one unearned run, walking one and striking out two. Carlos Gomez picked up his fourth save with two scoreless innings, escaping a bases-loaded, one-out jam in the eighth, and working around a leadoff single in the ninth to secure the win.

Hudson Valley was set to begin its final regular-season homestand of the year on Tuesday, August 30 with the first of six games against Jersey Shore.

Kyle Battle hit a go-ahead homerun Sunday to help the Renegades take a 9-7 win over the Hickory Crawdads. The Renegades are a half-game ahead of Brooklyn and face Jersey Shore in their final homestand of the season this week.

GLINER'S KORNER!

Handling decisions with the weather and making plans for the playoffs

Every week, Hudson Valley Renegades President Steve Gliner sits down with reporter Rich Thomaselli to discuss the team in particular, and minor league baseball in general.

So, how was your much-deserved few days off last week?

It was very nice. It was good to get away and spend some time with Michelle (Steve's wife) and, quite honestly, it was good to get away from the daily grind. It's a long season, even the months leading up to it. But we have a great staff here and they do a great job of minding the house.

Something I've been wanting to ask about is the weather. You don't have to worry about the lack of rain because of the artificial turf, but has this been a weird spring and summer for you?

Strange. Very strange, just in terms of what I usually would be doing. I feel like I deal with a lot more weather scenarios, but not this year. From an attendance standpoint obviously it's been great for us. It's been terrific for our walk-up crowd, for the families who look out their windows and might see threatening clouds or rain at 4 p.m. and then decide not to come to the game. We haven't had a lot of that.

Who does that decision - to play or not play - come down to?

It starts with me. I really sharpened my weather skills working down in Fort Myers (Florida), where it rains practically every afternoon, but I haven't had to use those skills much up here. But I monitor the radar, I talk with our groundskeeper, and we have a weather service that's been very good at keeping us to date, especially with flash storms.

You've stressed many times that the role of a general manager at the minor league level is different from the majors. You don't make player personnel decisions or trades or even discipline if need be. Your responsibility is strictly to the team. But with the Renegades fighting for a playoff spot, do you get caught up in it?

Oh, that will never get old. I'm still a baseball fan. My focus might be on operations, but I definitely pay attention to what the team is doing. Plus, this looks like it's going down to the wire, so there is plenty of work to be done. We talk with the folks at Aberdeen (the first half division champs) since they're the host team for the semifinal round of the playoffs if we make it. So we have to make travel plans, work with the opposing team, work with the Yankees and our manager and our staff to make sure we travel properly. It would be pretty exciting if we got into the playoffs.

Players at this level of the minor leagues are mostly concerned with getting to the next level. But do you think it's important to them to get into the playoffs?

Oh, I think it is. You never know when it might be their last chance. If you win a championship at any organization it's special.

Well, you've got a few rings for sure.

Five. Two in my first two years in baseball with the Albany-Colonie Yankees and I thought that would be the norm (laughs). The next one didn't come for 10 years until the Renegades won their first championship, the next one came 15 years after that with Fort Myers, and then we won in 2017 again with the Renegades. I mean, obviously I don't play the game, but I am as invested in the success of our team as anyone.

Passion Dance Studio performers celebrated George Lasnier's 80th birthday recently at St. Rocco's in Beacon. The hall was turned into a glittering Disco where family and friends honored Lasnier.

Celebrating with Lasnier were dancers from Passion- The Adult Dance Studio, which is owned by Calli Rothberg. Fellow dancers Carlos Gomez and Christina Kilbane, choreographed four numbers that mesmerized the crowd.

Highlights of the performances were bringing Lasnier center stage where he demonstrated his disco moves of yesteryear. For the finale the McElduff sisters (Mary, Jane, Tricia, and Maggie) jumped in with the pros and the chorus line kicks put the Rockettes to shame. Costumes from the Disco era were a must for the night and the Passion Dancers were sparkling!

Joanne Kielbasa Smith

BEACON - On August 21, 2022, Joanne Kielbasa Smith, 64, died peacefully with her husband and daughters saying prayers and singing hymns by her side. Joanne was born in Springfield, MA in 1958 to the late Joseph and Jane (Puza) Kielbasa and grew up in Westfield, MA, the home of her heart. She attended Holy Trinity School, Westfield High School, and Westfield State University. She returned to Holy Trinity School as a first grade teacher, a position she loved and held until marrying the love of her life, David L. Smith, also of Westfield, in 1989. Joanne moved to Beacon, NY where she made the parish of St. Joachim-St. John her new home, serving as the President of the Women's Parish Club for many years. Joanne enjoyed keeping a home in which everyone who entered felt welcomed, wanted, and loved. She was known far and wide for her baking, and you were privileged indeed if you had a taste of her pierogies. Joanne also took great delight in her travels to favorite places including Cape Cod, Poland, and the Holy Land, but her greatest and most complete joy was in her beloved family. Joanne is survived by her husband, David; daughters Emma Alles and her husband Chris, Molly Burnett and her husband Caegen, and Rachel Smith; grandson Maximilian; granddaughters Josephine, Simone, and Elizabeth; and soon-to-be-born grandchild Baby Burnett. Joanne will be greatly missed by her brothers and sisters, Joseph and his wife Nancy, Mary Jane and her husband Peter, Sandra, and Charles and his wife Melissa, and her many precious nieces and nephews. Calling hours will be Thursday, August 25, 2022 at Riverview Funeral Home by Halvey, 2 Beekman Street in Beacon. A Mass of Christian Burial was offered on Friday, August 26 at St. Joachim's Church, 51 Leonard Street in Beacon. Interment followed in St. Joachim's Cemetery, 325 Washington Avenue in Beacon. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations in Joanne's name may be made to the St. Joachim-St. John's Women's Parish Club or to Good Counsel Homes. Arrangements are under the direction of Riverview Funeral Home by Halvey, 2 Beekman Street in Beacon. To send the family a personal condolence, please visit our website at www.riverviewbyhalvey.com.

Clement R. Landanno, MD

FISHKILL - On Monday morning August 22, 2022, Clement R. Landanno, MD, passed from this life into eternal glory. His memory will be honored joyfully as, "doc," son, uncle, husband, father, dear friend and Pa. Dr. Landanno fulfilled his calling in this life as a family physician to the people of Dutchess County and beyond. A fellow of the American Academy of Family Physicians, he served the Hudson Valley for more than 40 years. He was a proud Bronx native, born to James and Marion (Gesualdo) Landanno. Dr. Landanno attended Fordham Preparatory, and NYU for undergraduate studies, where he met his best friend Ben Sims, who would eventually serve as Godparent to his children. Dr. Landanno earned his MD from SUNY Downstate in Brooklyn, where he also completed his residency. During this time, Dr. Landanno spent more than a year studying in Rome, leaving his new wife Antje behind in New York as he pursued his career. He began his first private practice in New Paltz, NY, later moving to Fishkill, where he cared for many local residents. Dr. Landanno was the associate director of the (former) St. Francis Hospital Hudson Valley family practice residency program until it ended. During the early 2000's, Dr. Landanno worked as a medical director for Montefiore Medical Centers, and returned to the Hudson Valley, serving at Excel Urgent Care. Dr. Landanno rounded out his illustrious career once again serving the families of Fishkill at Premier Medical Group until his retirement in 2020. During Clement's time on Earth, he sought out opportunities to serve others with compassion, and spent a lifetime inspiring others to do the same. Mourning his loss are his loving wife of 51 years, Antje (Martens) Landanno of Hamburg, Germany; Elder daughter, Melissa (Landanno) Minkow, her husband Adam Minkow, and their son Benjamin; Younger daughter, Pia (Landanno) Price, and her husband John Price; Sister, Margaret (Landanno) Andreou, her husband Harry Andreou, their children Geoffrey and Lauren, and children; Goddaughter, Lori Eckchart, and her son, Ryan; and a host of cousins, and people that Clement simply called "family." Train to become an ambassador for Dutchess Tourism

Dutchess Tourism, Inc. announced the launch of their new Dutchess Tourism Ambassador Program recently, when 21 individuals became Certified Tourism Ambassadors™ (CTAs) after completing the inaugural course and exam. The certification training was held at Dutchess Community College's Poughkeepsie campus. The CTA program is an industry-recognized certification accredited through the Tourism Ambassador Institute®.

To develop a curriculum specifically for Dutchess County, Dutchess Tourism worked with Mickey Schaefer, CAE, CTA, founder of the Tourism Ambassador Institute® and president of Mickey Schaefer & Associates LLC. Administered at the local level, CTA is the only program to give an official designation to front-line employees, business owners, executives, government officials, and volunteers.

Designed to increase the economic impact from tourism in the county, the CTA program works by inspiring front-line employees and volunteers to turn every visitor and resident encounter into an exceptional experience. The most comprehensive tourism and service delivery program of its kind, it will positively affect the county's tourism industry through front-line training and certification for hotels, attractions, events, restaurants, and other assets in Dutchess County. CTA programs have proven they strengthen talent retention and development in the hospitality space leading to improvements in customer satisfaction ratings and employee team morale. More than 56,000 individuals in the U.S. and Bermuda have been certified since the program's inception in 2006.

"We are so excited to bring this program to our community and appreciate the investment and support of County Executive (Marc) Molinaro and the members of the County Legislature," said Dutchess Tourism President and CEO Melaine Rottkamp. "Our CTAs will have the tools and knowledge necessary to help visitors have an exceptional experience in our county. Those visitors will often tell their friends and family, share on social media, write positive reviews and even plan return trips to Dutchess."

Molinaro added, "Tourism continues to play a critical role in driving economic recovery and growth. When visitors have a positive experience, we know they stay longer and spend more. Everyone benefits – the visitor, the industry, the local economy, and most importantly, the front-line worker. This workforce training program empowers our residents to develop valuable skills to help them land hospitality jobs, increase their value status as employees and climb the career ladder to higher paying jobs."

"Destination marketing and strategic planning often exclude the most important ingredient – the area's People Infrastructure," said Schaefer. "Placemaking, destination development, and brand alignment are best accomplished through a constant strategic connection among destination leaders, business stakeholders, residents, and the front-line that make it happen. We applaud Dutchess Tourism's forward thinking and being ahead of other destinations in bringing this prestigious certification program to its community." Currently, Dutchess County is the only destination in the northeast offering this highly specialized hospitality workforce training.

Upcoming Dutchess Tourism Ambassador certification classes will be offered on the following dates:

Dutchess County residents and employees wishing to participate can sign up to express their interest. The heavy lines indicate areas, called cages, from one to five squares in size. Fill each cage with unique digits, counting up from 1. So for example a 2-square cage contains the numbers 1 and 2; and a 5-square cage contains the numbers from 1 to 5. Adjacent (touching) squares, even ones that touch diagonally, may never contain the same number.
