Take a survey about Hudson Highlands Fjord Trail parking needs

By Kristine Coulter

Hudson Highlands Fjord Trail is seeking input. All one must do is fill out a survey.

A working group of stakeholders was convened to assist Hudson Highlands Fjord Trail "to help us consider transportation needs in our overall planning for the Fjord Trail linear park," according to a recent email from Hudson Highlands. Professional consultants were engaged to help guide and implement a formal Parking and Shuttle Study, according to HHFT information.

"We do not have a hard and fast end date for the survey, as we are most interested in making sure that we gather a statistically significant number of responses," said Lori Moss, who is the communications manager for the Hudson Highlands Fjord Trail.

The survey will be about the Fjord Trail's Parking and Shuttle Study. The survey was designed by Steadman-Hill Consulting.

Fjord Trail information about the survey reads, "By participating, you are providing us with valuable information to help us create the best possible plan for this exciting project, which is designed to solve existing safety and congestion issues and create a safe, scenic, and accessible way to enjoy the Hudson Highlands."

One may find the study at https://survey.alchemer.com/s3/70096 63/HHFT-Shuttle-Survey-Email.

Howland Cultural Center gallery to be renamed Northcutt Hall in honor of board member

By Kristine Coulter

Florence Northcutt, who is the president emeritus of the Howland Cultural Center (HCC), will be honored during a dedication ceremony at the Howland Cultural Center on October 30, from 4-6 p.m. The main gallery in the Howland Cultural Center will be known as Northcutt Hall in honor of the 95-year-old, who is on HCC's Board of Directors.

"I was speechless. It was one of those moments that was jaw dropping; you can't do anything. I was so surprised. I didn't know what to say initially," Northcutt said during a recent phone interview.

In a press release sent by Theresa Kraft, who is the president of the HCC, it was stated, "Sometimes words are all we need to leave a lasting impression. Expressing gratitude with our voice is a great way to clearly state our appreciation for those special in our life. Join us in celebrating Florence Northcutt and her lifelong dedication to the Howland Cultural Center and the City of Beacon with music, refreshments, family and friends... surrounded by art, of course!"

Northcutt recalled two years after moving to Beacon, she wanted to get involved in the community and was seeking a place where she could volunteer. A friend told her about the Howland Cultural Center.

"The moment I walked into that beautiful building, I loved it," remarked Northcutt.

According to HCC information, Northcutt joined the Board of Directors after joining as a volunteer two years prior. From 1996 to 2017 was the president of the HCC.

Northcutt said about the HCC building, "It was designed by one of the country's great architects, Richard Morris Hunt." It was built in 1872. It is called "the jewel of Beacon." Northcutt remarked that Hunt was instrumental in the design of the Great Hall of the Metropolitan Museum of Art. He also designed the pedestal for the Statue of Liberty. Gala celebrates decade of I Am Beacon

By Kristine Coulter

Members of I Am Beacon, a nonprofit, citizens including our youth -I am proud to say that collectively, we have executed recently. The gala took place at

"In 2011, I began a campaign to improve relations between city workers and the public. Through this effort, I uncovered a greater need to empower everyday citizens to get involved in addressing issues impacting our community. With the dedication of a small group of people who shared the same passion and love for our city, in 2012, I Am Beacon transformed into a formal 501(c)(3) non-profit organization," said Reuben Simmons, founder of I Am Beacon.

Asked what has been the greatest accomplishment, in your opinion, in the past 10 years? Reuben replied, "When I think about the greatest accomplishment, it always comes back to the people! From the very beginning until now, the response of the community has made the difference! Everything we do has been a truly collaborative effort between organizations, businesses, leaders, and everyday more than 50 community-wide events, provided 327 turkeys for families in need, distributed 800+ school supply kits, and awarded more than $30,000 in college scholarships to Beacon youth."

Reuben said he proud to state that I Am Beacon's entire board has been with the organization for the decade. There are volunteers who also have been with I Am Beacon for 10 years.

Brooke Simmons, with I Am Beacon, said about the next 10 years, "A critical next step for I Am Beacon is to establish a home to grow our programs, impact and reach."

According to Brooke, "This dedicated space will not only provide our organization with a consistent location in which to record our podcast, host meetings, run programs, as well as house, store, and distribute the many supplies and donations we collect for our events— it will also serve as a hub and center for the entire Beacon community."

him to design a building for the library (before its current Main St. location) in Beacon.

"There's nothing like it in the area," Northcutt stated.

Northcutt was honored with the Dutchess County Executive Arts Award for Special Citation sponsored by the Dutchess Arts Council in 2001.

It was stated in the release, "Florence has been a champion for the area's women for rising artists in the city's rich diversity of African-Americans, Asians and Hispanic artists and musicians. Florence ensured that the Howland, as a community center, was home for the Tioronda Garden Club, the Beacon Historical Society before its new location, and the renowned Howland Chamber Music Circle and welcomed many other community groups."

"Things like this don't happen in isolation," stated Northcutt. She said HCC has the backing of past and present board members, area politicians, and financial support, "which shows they all love it as much as I do."

Northcutt still volunteers her time at the HCC.

"It's so overwhelming to that the board members wanted to do this – to name the gallery after me. It means to me that I'll be with the Howland Cultural Center forever. I love the thought of that." Nothcutt said.

Howland Cultural Center is at 477 Main St. in Beacon.

Pianist, composer to perform Oct. 23 in Beacon

On October 23 continuing its Fall season, the Howland Chamber Music Circle will present longtime collaborators violinist Lara St. John and pianist/composer Martin Kennedy. The Canadian-born Lara St. John has been described as "something of a phenomenon" by The Strad and a "high-powered soloist" by the New York Times.

The concert will take place on Sunday, October 23, at 4 p.m., at the Howland Cultural Center, 477 Main Street, Beacon. For further information on this and other presentations by the Howland Chamber Music Circle, as well as Covid protocol please go to the Circle's website www.howlandmusic.org.

She has performed as a soloist with many major orchestras the world over as well as recitalist in New York, Boston, San Francisco, Ravinia, Wolf Trap, Washington, DC, Prague, Berlin, Toronto, Montreal and in the Forbidden City.

Her collaborator Martin Kennedy is a piano recitalist and soloist with an equally distinguished career. He is also a composer.

For their concert at the Howland Center, they have chosen to play the Violin Sonata in G Minor, L. 140 by Claude Debussy, the Sonata in A Major for Violin and Piano by Cesar Franck, the Rapsody No.2 for Solo Violin by Jessie Montgomery, various Romanian, Klezmer, and Hungarian tunes arranged for violin and piano, and a piece by Martin Kennedy, the Czardashian Rapsody.

DBCH to host Monkeypox Vaccine Clinic Oct. 25 in East Fishkill

The Dutchess County Department of Behavioral & Community Health (DBCH) will be hosting an upcoming JYNNEOS/Monkeypox vaccine clinics for residents at the highest risk of monkeypox infection. Education, outreach and vaccinations have helped keep the number of reported monkeypox cases in Dutchess County very low, with no new cases reported since August 24th and no current active cases. An earlier clinic was held on Oct. 17th.

• October 25th from 1 to 4 p.m.

Sloop Brewery

755 East Dr., Suite 106, East Fishkill

Residents must meet current eligibility criteria set by New York State to register for an appointment. According to the NYSDOH, those eligible for monkeypox vaccine at this clinic include:

• Individuals with recent monkeypox exposure to a suspected or confirmed case of monkeypox in the past 14 days.

• Those at high risk of recent exposure to monkeypox, including members of the gay, bisexual, transgender, and gender non-conforming community and other communities of men who have sex with men and who have engaged in intimate or skin-to-skin contact with others in the past 14 days in areas where monkeypox is spreading.

• Individuals who have had skin-to-skin contact with someone in a social network experiencing monkeypox activity, including men who have sex with men who meet partners through an online website, digital app, or social event, such as a bar or party.

• Any individual that may be at risk of future exposure to infection with monkeypox, even though they are not at high risk of recent exposure to monkeypox.

The JYNNEOS monkeypox vaccine is given in a two-dose series, 28-35 days apart. Individuals are considered to be fully vaccinated two weeks after the second dose of vaccine.

DBCH Commissioner Dr. Livia Santiago-Rosado said, "When monkeypox cases were initially being reported, our public health team got right to work educating the public about monkeypox and offering vaccinations to those at the highest risk. Thankfully those efforts have been successful as there no active cases in our community. We encourage everyone, particularly those in high-risk populations, to be mindful about monkeypox and consider vaccination if eligible."

The first case of monkeypox in Dutchess County was reported on July 21st. There have been a total of 10 cases, including the initial case, reported in Dutchess County, with no new reported cases since August 24th. DBCH Public Health Advisors worked in conjunction with local organizations and businesses, including Dutchess Pride, Sun River Health, Sloop Brewery in East Fishkill and the Roosevelt Bar in Beacon, on community outreach to inform and educate the public about Monkeypox and how to avoid spread. Several vaccination clinics have been held for eligible residents and to date more than 209 individuals have been vaccinated.

Monkeypox virus is part of the same family of viruses as variola virus, the virus that causes smallpox and is spread through close, physical contact between people and anyone can get it. However, based on the epidemiology, certain populations are being affected more than others, including men who have sex with men (MSM). The virus spreads through contact with an infected person's rash, or potentially through respiratory droplets from prolonged face to face contact. The virus may also spread through contact with objects that were used by an infected person (clothing, bedding or towels). Children aged 8 or under, and pregnant or immunocompromised individuals have a higher risk of severe illness or complications, but these are rare.

The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) recommends residents take the following steps to prevent getting monkeypox: • Do not touch the rash or scabs of a person with monkeypox;

• Avoid close, skin-to-skin contact with people with a rash that looks like monkeypox, or who may have been exposed to monkeypox;

• Do not kiss, hug, cuddle or have sex with someone with monkeypox or someone suspected or known to have been exposed;

• Do not share eating utensils or cups with a person with monkeypox or someone suspected or known to have been exposed;

• Do not handle or touch the bedding, towels or clothing of a person with monkeypox or of someone suspected or known to have been exposed; and

• Wash your hands often with soap and water or use an alcohol-based hand sanitizer.

A person is considered contagious until all lesions have healed over with intact skin. The CDC advises those sick with monkeypox to isolate at home and stay in separate from others and pets, when possible.

Residents can call DBCH staff for education and guidance on Monkeypox at 845-486-3404. For more information on Monkeypox or to fill out the Monkeypox vaccine questionnaire visit dutchessny.gov/Departments/DBCH/emergent-health.htm.

County opens Housing Creation and Preservation Program process

The Dutchess County Department of Planning and Development last week opened its application process for the Housing Creation and Preservation (HCP) Program, an integral part of the newly established Dutchess County Housing Trust Fund (HTF), established to provide financial support for the creation of affordable housing distributed throughout the county.

Both private for-profit and non-profit developers are eligible to apply for funding through a competitive application process, with approximately $9 million available. Applications will be accepted via an online portal through Nov. 30th at 4 p.m.

This application round covers two eligible activities within the HCP Program:

• Housing Creation: The creation of new affordable rental housing via new construction, rehabilitation of existing housing stock, and adaptive reuse of non-residential structures. Funded projects may be fully affordable or mixed-income; single-room occupancy rental housing is eligible under this category.

• Housing Preservation: Acquisition and/or rehabilitation of occupied, naturally-occurring affordable rental housing with income-eligible tenants to secure long-term affordability with applicable compliance periods.

Developments awarded HCP funds may also receive additional funding from other sources, including private financing / bank loans. Developments where other funding is committed will receive a higher priority. Tax credits and HCP funds may be used together.

The Dutchess County Housing Trust Fund requires that a minimum of 80% of a project's funding through the Housing Trust Fund be targeted to households with incomes up to 60% of the Area Median Income (ÂMI) for Dutchess County. The remainder of a project's funding may support units targeted to households with incomes up to 80% the County's AMI. Once eligibility is determined, applications are reviewed jointly by Department of Planning and Development staff and the Dutchess County Housing Trust Fund's Project Review Committee (PRC), with a particular project focus on underwriting and overall compliance with program parameters.

The creation of the HTF is an outgrowth of the 2022 Dutchess County Housing Needs Assessment, released in April. Recognizing both the importance of safe, affordable housing and the challenges that many of our residents continue to face with regard to housing, Dutchess County has moved swiftly to set up the Housing Trust Fund and launch this first round of funding.

County Executive Marc Molinaro said "Countless communities throughout the nation, including Dutchess County, have faced housing availability and affordability challenges for a number of years. We know housing costs are outpacing incomes, and rental housing vacancy rates have been the lowest we've seen in over 40 years. In addition, the COVID-19 pandemic likely put additional strain on our market. We encourage developers looking to create affordable housing to apply for the Housing Creation and Preservation Program and help Dutchess County change local families' lives."

The HTF will provide a flexible and nimble funding source to aid in the implementation of a variety of affordable housing efforts throughout the County. The minimum amount of subsidy under the HCP is $10,000 per unit, and the maximum is $175,000 per unit.

Rental housing located in any Dutchess County municipality is eligible, but priority will be given to:

• Housing that helps a municipality meet its portion of the minimum recommended countywide Fair Share Distribution, outlined in the 2022 Dutchess County Housing Needs Assessment;

• Housing in communities or neighbor

GUIDELINES FOR POLITICAL LETTERS

- Maximum 300 words

- Must be sent via email

- Provide a phone number where we may reach you to confirm you have written the letter-writers

- We will run as many letters as possible, space permitting, in our Oct. 19, 26 and Nov. 2 issues. Please note that we will NOT run negative letters against any candidate in the Nov. 2 issue; only letters endorsing candidates will be run in that issue.

EDITOR'S NOTE: We appreciate the passion that people feel for their candidates and their political parties, but encourage letter-writers to express support for their candidates in a positive and instructive manner. It is easy to criticize others, but at the local level, we know that great things can be accomplished through cooperation. We have faith that our readers, and our communities, can rise above the partisan fray in this election season, and emphasize the good that their candidates will do.

Former Beacon Mayor Steve Gold supports Shiroishi

To the Editor:

From my perspective as the former mayor of the City of Beacon and chief of staff for Assemblyman Frank Skartados, I experienced both city and state governance. With that in mind, I am voting for Julie Shiroishi.

The challenges of state government are different from the ones a mayor experiences at a city level. And while I know Julie's opponent to be a fine person, the politics and issues he and his party represents at the state level do not resonate well for me and would be a harmful step backwards for New Yorkers.

BEACON FREE PRESS

Published Weekly, Wappingers Falls Shopper, Inc.

Julie supports the state issues that are important to me. She will stand up for reproductive rights, affordable health insurance, housing security, mental and physical support services, equality in education, rebuilding our roads and bridges and strong environmental protections. Her positions were formed in Albany as the chief of staff for Assemblyman Jonathan Jacobson where together they worked on these issues firsthand.

Julie is a brilliant and personable individual who is going to work hard, smart and effectively for the Hudson Valley, and I believe will become a leader in Albany.

Remembering Claudio Coppola

Dear Claudio,

It hard to believe that it's been 10 years. Ten years since your time ended here on earth and though to you those ten years are nothing more than a grain of sand on the beach of time, it feels like an eternity for us.

Even after 10 years we still miss you. There are good days and bad days. However, the good days are gratifying, and we find ourselves telling funny stories about you. Your family and friends have all grown up. Some are engaged, some are married. Some still live in the area while others have moved away. We enjoy whenever they come and visit and tell us a story that we hadn't heard yet. Or give us a detail about your life that we hadn't know. We look forward to you expressing yourself in our daily lives. A surprise blue Hydrangea bloom, a butterfly, your sports number 18 in an unusual place.

Your foundation, The Claudio Cares Foundation, is still in operation. Though the pandemic has slowed us down, we still find ways to let your legacy be known. We have built seven Claudio Coppola Memorial Computer Rooms. Your can drive has generated over 250,000 pounds of non-perishable food items that helped feed thousands of families in the Dutchess County area that was collected by kids, teenagers and adults and brought to us on your birthday December 17th. Rain, snow or shine, we are outside as people pull up with their cases and bags of canned goods. Out of ten years we have only had one day that it didn't snow so we would really appreciate it if you could maybe ask the big guy to give us some good weather. Young people continue to collect through their teams, schools and clubs and bring us canned goods.

With the help of your family, friends, classmates, and strangers, we were able to fundraise and give away over $150,000 in the form of donations, scholarships and awards. Claudio's Can Drive, Claudio's Snowflake Gala, and the Claudio Coppola Memorial Golf Tournament also called "The Claude," were major happenings and helped us raise all the funds that we donated and will continue to donate in the future. We hope that in the years to come we will be able to resume our fundraising once everyone has recovered from these tough times. Your mom wants to have at least one more Snowflake Gala and make one final donation to help with Mental Health in young people.

Claudio, all of this was done because of you! We delight in telling people of your generosity and selflessness. You encouraged both adults and young people throughout the Hudson Valley to give of themselves and help us to help others. We continue to receive calls and emails, from people far and wide asking how they can be a part of the Claudio Cares Foundation. Your inspiration knows no bounds.

Claudio, you have inspired us to do many good things. We wish you were physically here to help us and participate. We hear you speaking to us, encouraging us. We feel your presence and listen to your ideas.

Well Claudio, you told us how wonderful it is in heaven in a dream to your mother. We know we will be seeing you shortly because our time here on earth is short compared to time in paradise. Continue speaking to us. Continue inspiring us. Continue watching over us. We need you and appreciate that you have stayed with us.

Take care, Our Sweet Boy.

Love always, Mom, Dad, Marcanthony, Geno, and Clara

To the Editor:

Democratic Assemblyman Jonathan Jacobson voted in 2019 to pass the bail reform laws that have led to record levels of volent crime throughout New York state in the past three years. Now, his chief of staff, Julie Shiroishi, is running for the state senate in the 39th district.

Thankfully, voters have a viable alternative. Rob Rolison has served as mayor in the city of Poughkeepsie since 2015. During that time, Mayor Rolison has turned Poughkeepsie around in many areas. As a retired detective from the Town of Poughkeepsie Police Department with 30 years experience in law enforcement, Rob has strengthened the police department and helped to curtail crime within its borders. He does not believe in "defunding the police."

As a retired City of Poughkeepsie detective, I have known and worked with Rob Rolison for more than 30 years. It is not surprising to me that Rob has received the endorsement of many PBAs representing law enforcement in the Hudson Valley.

If you are concerned about the safety of your family and your community, I urge you to vote for the only candidate who opposes these misguided bail reform laws. Elect Rob Rolison on November 8th!

Union Vale supervisor backs Schmitt for Congress

To the Editor:

Recently, Assemblyman Colin Schmitt who is the candidate for the NY18 congressional district attended a meet and greet breakfast in Union Vale to discuss his vision for the Hudson Valley. I was happy to hear that a lot of his platform focuses on the safety of Dutchess County residents. He supports the police and over 15 police organizations have endorsed him because of his track record in the state legislature of funding and supporting the police and introducing legislation to end the dangerous ramifications of cashless bail.

We also discussed actionable items to ensure America's economy is strong through pro-growth tax and deregulatory policies so that good-paying jobs can be created here in the Hudson Valley.

For these and many other bi-partisan legislative accomplishments as a member of the Local Government Committee, Colin Schmitt is a great fit for Dutchess County!

New York League of Conservation Voters (NYLCV) endorses Beephan

To the Editor:

I chose your distinguished newspaper to announce that I have received the New York League of Conservation Voters (NYLCV) endorsement of my candidacy for New York State Assembly. I am extremely humbled and honored to have received this endorsement and I want to thank the membership of the NYCLV for their support. The NYLCV is a non-partisan non-profit organization that fights for environmental innovation across all regions of New York.

As a steadfast supporter of economic opportunity and growth, I believe climate investments are essential to creating jobs and providing New Yorkers the security they deserve. Necessary funding for restoration, flood risk reduction, water quality improvement, and resilient infrastructure has been lacking in New York for far too long. I look forward to strengthening our partnership in Albany where I pledge to advocate for farmland preservation and open space protection among other solutions to environmental challenges.

Together, we can ensure adequate budgetary remedies tailored to specific regions of our state and levels of government in order to safeguard New York's diverse and vibrant ecosystem for all to enjoy.

Obituaries

Joseph O. Celtruda

EAST FISHKILL - Joseph O. Celtruda (82), a longtime resident of Hopewell Junction NY, passed away peacefully on October 10th, with his sons at his side. Joe, fondly known as Papa to his grandchildren, was born January 30, 1940 in Ossining, NY the son of Joseph and Julia Celtruda. Joe received his bachelor's degree from Clarkson University in Electrical Engineering on a ROTC scholarship and started his 32-year career with IBM in 1961, while also serving 11 years of active and reserve service as a Captain in the U.S. Army Signal Corps. While at IBM, Joe was a leader in advanced processor design for mainframe computing and was directly involved with major IBM product developments, as well as authoring two U.S. patents and multiple technical publications. Joe had many hobbies and interests in retirement, including: wine making, golfing, gardening, grilling, using his ingenuity and craftsmanship to solve a myriad of projects around the house. Most of all, he enjoyed spending time with his family and friends, especially his grandchildren. In his later years, much time was spent in his battle with cancer and caring for his wife, yet throughout he always maintained his infectious smile and optimistic attitude. Joe was predeceased by his parents Joseph and Julia Celtruda and by his sister Joan Gaeta. He is survived by his loving wife of 52 years Catherine Celtruda (Graf); his sister Mary Ellen Tanaka of Venice, FL; his sons Joseph (Patricia) Celtruda of Mechanicville, NY; and Michael (Desiree) Celtruda of Brookline, MA; and by his 5 grandchildren: Joseph, Nicholas, Matthew, Rafael, and Bianca, as well as many nieces and nephews. Calling hours were held on Sunday, October 16 at the McHoul Funeral Home, Inc., 895 Route 82, Hopewell Junction. A Mass of Christian Burial was offered on Monday, October 17 at St. Denis Church, 602 Beekman Road, Hopewell Junction, followed by internment at St. Denis Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made in Joe's memory to the American Cancer Society. Please visit his Book of Memories at www.mchoulfuneralhome.com.

Walkway, Serino to host event for Breast Cancer Awareness Day

In recognition of Breast Cancer Awareness Month, Sen. Sue Serino is teaming up with the Walkway Over the Hudson to host a free Breast Cancer Awareness Day where residents will have the opportunity to connect directly with local community organizations who offer breast cancer related resources and services. This event will be held on Saturday, Oct. 22, from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. on the Highland side of the Walkway Over the Hudson (87 Haviland Road, Highland).

Representatives from the following organizations will be in attendance:

- American Cancer Society Making Strides Against Breast Cancer Hudson Valley

- HealthAlliance, a member of WMC Health

- MidHudson Regional Hospital, a member of WMC Health

- Miles of Hope Breast Cancer Foundation

- New York State Cancer Services Program Sparrow's Nest of the Hudson Valley

- The Dyson Breast Center at Vassar Brothers Medical Center, part of the Nuvance Health Cancer Institute

Serino said, "Our community is home to so many great resources and organizations that are doing all that they can to empower our neighbors to be proactive when it comes to their breast health, and this Breast Cancer Awareness Month, I am thrilled to be able to partner with the Walkway Over the Hudson to bring them together in one place. As a breast cancer survivor myself, I know that early detection can make all the difference and save lives, which is why I want to ensure that our neighbors have the tools they need to put their health first and get screened regularly. I cannot thank our partners enough for working with us to make this happen, and I look forward to seeing our neighbors there!'

Diane Haight, Interim Executive Director of the Walkway Over the Hudson said, "We are looking forward to partnering with Senator Serino again this year for Breast Cancer Awareness Month. With over 10,000 visitors a day to the Walkway, the important information distributed at this outreach will connect with a wide audience."

This event is free and open to the public, and an RSVP is not required. For more information, call Serino's Hyde Park Office at 845-229-0106 or email serino@nysenate.gov.

Free Rabies Clinic at DCSPCA set for Oct. 23 in Hyde Park

The Dutchess County Department of Behavioral & Community Health (DBCH) is partnering with the Dutchess County SPCA to host a free rabies vaccination clinic for dogs, cats, and domestic ferrets three months of age and older on October 23, at the Dutchess County SPCA located at 636 Violet Ave in Hyde Park from 8 a.m. to noon. Pre-registration is required, and residents can register at DCSPCA.org or by calling the DCSPCA at 845-452-7722 extension 425.

There is no charge for Dutchess County residents; non-residents will be charged a fee of $10 per pet vaccinated. All dogs must be on leash and cats and domestic ferrets must be in carriers. Vaccinations will be good for three years for pets with proper proof of prior immunization. For those without proof, the vaccination will be good for one year.

In New York State, rabies shots are required for all cats, dogs, and domestic ferrets by the age of four months. Revaccination is then required on a regular schedule to keep the animal properly immunized against the rabies virus. Owners can be fined up to $200 if they fail to get their pets vaccinated and keep them up to date.

DBCH Commissioner Dr. Santiago-Rosado reminds pet owners of the importance of vaccinating all dogs, cats, and ferrets, even if they are considered "house pets" and remain indoors. If an animal has not had a rabies vaccine or is not up to date on the rabies vaccine and interacts with a rabid or suspect-rabid animal, the pet must be either promptly euthanized or placed in quarantine for six months to protect other animals and people in case the pet develops rabies. These mandates do not apply for a vaccinated pet in the same situation. In such cases, only a booster dose of rabies vaccine would be given within five days to treat the pet.

DBCH is available 24/7 to assist with any questions or concerns regarding potential rabies exposure to people or domestic animals. Pet owners should report to DCBH any incident in which their pet has been bitten by or has an open wound exposed to the saliva or nervous tissue of a domestic or wild animal. Staff will investigate and advise the pet owner of any necessary steps they should take to ensure the safety of their animal.

Residents who see an animal acting strangely are advised to contact their local police agency. If a person has been bitten, or a domestic pet is bitten or is in contact, with any animal, they're to contact DBCH immediately at 845-486-3404 Monday through Friday 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., or 845-431-6465 on nights and weekends.

To learn more about rabies please visit our Rabies and Other Zoonotics page or contact DCBH at HealthInfo@ dutchessny.gov

Edward Bateman; his sister, Kimberly Bateman. He is also survived by a host of aunts, uncles, cousins & friends. His Family & Friends gathered to remember him on Sunday, October 16th at the LIBBY FUNERAL HOME, 55 Teller Avenue, Beacon, NY 12508, and concluded with a prayer service. Interment will be private at the discretion of his family. To offer a message of condolence or share a fond memory, please visit: www.LibbyFuneralHome.com.

'Thriving in Rhinebeck' set for Oct. 22

Thriving in Rhinebeck: a Showcase of Services and Resources for Older Adults returns on Saturday, October 22, from 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. at the Rhinebeck High School, 45 North Park Rd. "Our target audience is Rhinebeck and our neighboring communities - not just older adults, but their families, their caregivers, and others who will at some point really need to know how and where to reach out," said Nina Lynch, President of Rhinebeck at Home and a member of the organizing team. "We are trying to help build an age-friendly, resourceful community. Our 2019 event was widely praised, and we're happy to be back."

Featured speaker Dr. Peter Grant Jordan, President of Dutchess Community College, will talk in the auditorium about how DCC is gearing up to strengthen opportunities for learning across generations - from a college for kids (k-8), dual-credit high school programs, associate degree and certificate offerings, to adult workforce education, corporate training solutions, and senior education. The Alzheimer's Association will encourage us all in "How to Think about Alzheimer's", and Hudson Valley Hospice will explain how their programs and services have changed and expanded.

Approximately 40 exhibitors will participate, including healthcare and in-home care services, adult day care programs, transportation options, food delivery and nutrition help, guidance on downsizing. Rhinebeck High School students from the Interact Club will be on hand to greet attendees and help them navigate the school spaces. With Medicare's annual "open enrollment" season starting November 1, participants can be in the know with assistance from the Dutchess County Office for Aging's staff; and attendees can also get OFA guidance on improving their balance and preventing falls. Nuvance Health's Roufia Payman will talk about nutrition, and educational and advocacy groups will show what's on our November ballots.

Participation is free for all. Informational tables will fill the lobby and gym of Rhinebeck High School. Printed programs for attendees with the names of all participating organizations will be available. In addition to Rhinebeck at Home, the organizing team includes Archcare at Ferncliff, Rhinebeck Central School District, and Rhinebeck Rotary Club.

For more information, please call Rhinebeck at Home at 845-379-1114 or email office@rhinebeckathome.org.

Shoe collection to fund DeKinder School

The First Reformed Church of Fishkill is planning a drive-by drop-off event to collect gently used or new shoes (including boots, sneakers, sandals, flip-flops, Crocs, golf shoes and slippers). The shoe drive will help support DeKinder School, a 40-year-old non-sectarian preschool program, as well as individuals in developing nations like Haiti, Ghana, and Cambodia, where micro-entrepreneurs will resell the shoes to support their families.

All one needs to do is collect shoes, bag them and bring them to the parking lot of the Fishkill Food Pantry (on the corner of Main St. and Route 9) on October 30th, between noon and 3 p.m. Open the trunk, and volunteers will get the shoes.

The Shoe Drive ends on Nov.16th. If one cannot make it to the drive-thru, bring the donations to the DuBois House (next to the Food Pantry) and drop them in the box on the back porch anytime.

The shoes that we collect will be kept from landfills, help our preschool, and will help others in developing countries...as well as cleaning out one's closets.

Hear about the 'Mothball Fleet' during historical society presentation Oct. 27

The Wappingers Historical Society whs) will host a talk entitled "Mothball Fleet on the Hudson," presented by local historian and author Anthony Musso. Musso will discuss the purpose and fate of the fabled "mothball fleet," which many locals referred to as "the ghost ships" which were anchored in the Hudson River from 1946-1971. In 1946, the National Naval Defense Reserve Fleet was established and eight sites around the nation were selected to store ships from World War II, and keep them ready for action in the event of a national emergency. One of the locations chosen was the Hudson River. Hudson River Defense Reserve Fleet (also known as the Mothball Fleet) remained active at Jones Point, just south of the Bear Mountain Bridge, from 1946 through 1971. At its peak, 189 vessels were anchored there, side-by-side in neatly arranged rows that spanned the river for several miles south. Attendees will learn about the origins of this fleet and what became of it.

H.V. Gospel Festival set Oct. 22 in Poughkeepsie

Historical society to hold talk Oct. 25

The Hudson Valley Gospel Festival will be held on October 22 in Poughkeepsie. Courtesy photo

The Hudson Valley Gospel Festival committee has announced a new date and place for the third Hudson Valley Gospel Festival. The festival will be held on October 22, from noon to 5 p.m. at The Family Partnership, 29 N. Hamilton Street, Poughkeepsie. Ticket prices are $20 for adults and $15 for students (K-College [with ID]), seniors, and veterans/active military. Children under 5 are free. Doors will open at 11 a.m. To purchase tickets: http://weblink.donorperfect.com/2022HVGospel.

The afternoon event will feature the Hudson Valley Gospel Festival Choir directed by Dr. Mary McLymore, Sisters in Spirit of the Hudson Valley, The New Stars of Harmony, Andreas Humpert, the Mid-Hudson Chinese Christian Church Choir, and Tashan Pearse. New this year is the Hudson Valley Gospel Festival Praise Dance Team led by Linda Molina. Returning to the festival is the "Walk Through Gospel History," taking us on a musical journey through the roots of gospel music, this year featuring James Cleveland.

The Festival will also honor Louis Watson, an original member of the Goldenaires, who performed from the 1950s to the 1980s including on stage at Harlem's Apollo Theater.

The Beacon Historical Society will hold a talk with its past president, Denise VanBuren, on October 25 at the Howland Cultural Center on Main St. in Beacon. She will discuss the Centennial of the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier.

-Courtesy photo

The Beacon Historical Society will hold its October history talk with Beaocn Historical Society Past President Denise VanBuren as she discusses the Centennial of the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier and her journey across France (as President General of the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution) to recreate the 1921 events that resulted in the dedication of the Tomb at Arlington National Cemetery. You may be surprised to learn two Beacon connections to this memorial that honors our nation's unknown war dead.

The lecture will be presented at the Howland Cultural Center, 477 Main Street on October 25 at 7 p.m. This program will be recorded and live streamed.
